

EMD Protocol 11

ALL ANSWERS CAN BE FOUND ON THE PROTOCOL

www.CrosswordWeaver.com

ACROSS

- 1 Total obstruction of the upper airway that prevents ___
- 4 ___ Obstruction is a total obstruction of the upper airway
- 5 Total obstruction of the upper airway that prevents ___
- 8 A healthy child or young adult found in cardiac arrest is considered to have a ___ body airway obstruction until proven otherwise
- 11 Back slaps are ___ recommended in the DLS environment
- 13 Repetitive ___
- 16 Is s/he ___ normally
- 17 ___ sounds between coughs (Partial Obstruction)
- 18 ___ is rarely a prehospital emergency

DOWN

- 1 What did s/he ___ on
- 2 Total obstruction of the upper airway that prevents ___
- 3 ___ is an example of saying "It's okay, we can do this together"
- 6 Victims of complete airway obstruction are unable to ___
- 7 Abnormal ___ (Partial Obstruction)
- 8 ___ coughs (Partial Obstruction)
- 9 Victims of complete airway obstruction are unable to ___
- 10 Repetitive persistence is combining a command with a ___
- 12 Difficulty ___ normally (Partial Obstruction)
- 13 The best approach for ___ airway obstruction is to encourage the patient to continue spontaneous coughing and breathing efforts
- 14 Do not ___ her/him on the back
- 15 Victims of complete airway obstruction are unable to ___